

Daniel Commale began his educational career at Cardinal O’Hara High School in 2006 as a social studies teacher. He spent two years teaching at Cardinal O’Hara before becoming Assistant Disciplinarian. Over the next five years, Mr. Commale served as an Assistant Disciplinarian while also teaching social studies and biology. In 2012, he became the Assistant Principal for Academic Affairs at Cardinal O’Hara High School. The year 2018 marks Mr. Commale’s twelfth year in education.

Through his many educational experiences, he was able to collaborate with a diverse group of people to meet the common goals of increasing student achievement and well-being. His educational philosophy is based on his belief that all students can learn, given a positive learning environment, strong and knowledgeable leadership, a committed and focused educational team, an encouraging community, and a supportive family - all of which are the foundation of the Armenian Sisters Academy.

Mr. Commale received a Bachelor’s Degree in Political Science and Secondary Education from Neumann University. He earned his Master’s Degree in Educational Leadership and his Principal’s Certification from the University of Scranton.

We welcome our new Vice Principal, Mr. Daniel Commale, to the Armenian Sisters Academy.
